

Not all superheroes wear capes!

Who do you admire?

Why are they your hero?

What personal characteristics, skills, values, and strengths do they have?

Are these things important to you? Do you admire these qualities?

Do you recognise any of these qualities in yourself? Do you strive to have any?

Children's University

If you're a member of Children's University you can get a stamp for completing this activity.

Your code is red8491.

If you're not already a member, Children's University is now open to all children and young people, whether you're home-educated or if you attend a school that's not part of their network.

You can find out more and sign up at www.childrensuniversity.co.uk/subscribe

